

Memorandum of Understanding
Law School of Tongji University
And
Department of Law of the University of Pisa

Law School of Tongji University (Tongji) and Department of Law of the University of Pisa (Pisa) seeking to establish and deepen an institutional relationship between the schools, enter into this Memorandum of Understanding.

Primary Objectives:

Both institutions agree that the primary objectives of this MOU include, but are not limited to, the following:

1.1 Faculty: Each school will try to send professors to the other school to give lectures, do research, and give workshops on matters within their academic expertise. On occasion, a professor from the partner university may be invited to teach a class for credit. Each school will provide visiting scholar privileges to the other school's professors, including the use of an office if one is available. Each school will provide financial support for their own faculty unless other arrangements are made.

1.2 Students: Tongji will nominate 2 law students to attend the LLM program or as exchange students at Law school of Pisa for one semester each year. The credit earned during this semester will be recognized by Tongji. Pisa will nominate 2 students to Tongji Law School for exchange each year. Students will be free of the tuition in the host institution.

1.3 Sino-Italian center for administration of Justice: Tongji Law school intends to establish a Sino-Italian research center for administration of Justice together with the Sino-Italian Campus of Tongji University, as a research platform subordinated to the Law School. It is planned to invite the Law school of Pisa as a partner to create a solid synergy in the sharing of knowledge and in the mutual enrichment of understanding both in theory and in practice of the Administration of Justice. The project for establishment of Sino-Italian Center on Administration of Justice will be attached to this MOU as an appendix thereof.

Administration of the MOU

2.1 Each institution shall identify a member of its full-time staff as the coordinator responsible for the effective implementation of this MOU.

2.2 This MOU may be amended at any time by written mutual consent through an exchange of letters.

This MOU shall come into effect from the date that the final signature is affixed and will be valid for a period of five years. Discussions will take place four years following the signing to renew or extend the MOU. It may be terminated by six-months written notice by either party.
