

UNION EUROPÉENNE DES TRANSPORTEURS ROUTIER

Profile/mission

Brussels-based umbrella organization UETR (Union européenne des transporteurs routiers / European Road Haulers Association www.uefr.eu) represents more than 200.000 freight transport companies in Europe (Micro and Small and Medium Enterprises) with a total capacity of 430.000 commercial vehicles.

We have gained a solid international recognition and play a central role in defending small businesses' interests represented by national member associations.

Objectives:

- to have a regular dialogue with EU institutions and other stakeholders, sectoral networks and organizations;
- to give our federations a real chance to contribute to EU decision making process;
- to gather information on current and future policies, legislation and funding opportunities;
- to represent an effective hub for cooperation and engagement of national associations in joint projects and activities

UETR is sectoral member of SMEUnited, the European Association of Crafts, Small and Medium-sized Enterprises which incorporates 83 member organizations consisting of national cross-sectorial federations, European branch federations and other associate members representing over 12 million companies with nearly 55 million employees.

UETR takes the lead and chairs the SMEUnited Transport Forum, a cooperation platform bringing together small and medium-sized enterprises from manufacturing and repair of road vehicles as well as road transport. The Forum develops common positions on all relevant transport-related issues such as sustainability, supply chain organization, road safety, infrastructure efficiency, etc.

UETR is an organization under Belgian law 2 May 2002, headquarters based in Brussels, Rue Washington 40 B 1050.
