

International workshop

Ensuring strategic autonomy through the law: the challenges for the European Union in the contemporary technological, digital and economic world

Pisa, 27-28 June 2022

Aula Magna storica, Palazzo La Sapienza, Via Curtatone e Montanara 15

Online on MS Teams (link)

27 June 2022

First Panel

Chair: Cécile Rapoport

16.30 The challenges and opportunities in strengthening European technological Sovereignty

Prof. Sara Poli, University of Pisa

16.50 The "Strategic Autonomy" of the EU: what's in a name?

Prof. Charlotte Beaucillon, Université de Lille

17.10 The Autonomy of the EU legal Order as a means to secure EU's strategic Autonomy

Prof. Cécile Rapoport, Université de Rennes

17.30 General Discussion

9.35 Foreign investment control procedures as a tool to enforce EU strategic autonomy

Prof. Sabrina Robert-Cuendet, Université du Maine-Laval

9.55 Discussant, Prof. Ottavio Quirico, Australian National University, Univ. of New England, EU

10.15 General Discussion

10. 45 Coffee break

Third Panel

Chair: Charlotte Beaucillon

11.10 EU technological sovereignty as a tool for EU defence policy

Prof. Lorenza Mola, University of Turin

11.30 The legal framework of the EU defence industry: is it suitable for pursuing strategic autonomy?

Dr Gabriella Perotto, University of Turin

11.50 Discussant, Prof. Chiara Celerino, University of Genoa

12.10 General Discussion

28 June 2022

Second Panel

Chair: Sara Poli

9.15 Digital sovereignty and data localisation

Prof. Elaine Fahey, City, University of London